1	I hope she'll be a fool—that's the best thing a girl can be in this world, a beautiful little fool pg 14	Daisy speaks these words in Chapter 1 as she describes to Nick and Jordan her hopes for her infant daughter. It gives us an idea of Daisy's character, this portrays her limited mentality or it could show that she has been through hard times, being a girl has limited her to several things. An example would be not speaking to her family whilst she was with Gatsby as they did not approve of him. The older generation values the females being instructive, whilst the younger generation value their appearance. This is such a sensitive quote, especially in islam and the world today. Women are suppressed and men think that they should be isolated and covered. Although in actual fact, in Islam women's strength should be shown following our female religious leader "zainab" who was the prophet Mohammed's granddaughter. She was so strong and is looked up today, as she saw her brothers die in the war, and stood up for them against men. Women should be able to have control of their freedom. As I believe in the saying "Behind every successful man is a women" and " behind every successful woman is a smart man" although many think other wise just like in this quote. Gender discrimination Culture

2	“I hope she’ll be a fool—that’s the best thing a girl can be in this world, a beautiful little fool.”	Pg.14	Daisy speaks these words to Nick and Jordan her hopes for her daughter. This quote offers a glimpse into Daisy’s character. While Daisy is not a fool herself, she becomes the product of the social environment in which she lives. This social environment that she lives in shuns on intelligence in women but rather value subservience and obedience in females. This is the conservative aristocratic view that the general east egg people are described to have.	American Dream
